“ I met Jimmy only for a short time but I found him very pleasurable to talk. We sometimes used to microwave our AMY's food on the 4th floor breakroom and discussed some of the good flavors they have. RIP Jimmy. Ritu Aroskar

“ Jimmy and I had been friends forever it seems. It all started in Houston when we worked for First City National Bank downtown. Then we both eventually migrated to the Dallas area and stayed in touch. In the mid 80s and early 90s he was part of the Christmas at Lake Sam Rayburn group hosted by our dear friend, Shirley. We had a pizza party at his house a few years ago and discovered that he had never ordered a pizza for delivery! Given his wide girth by that time I found that to be unbelievable but he swore it was the truth. We all laughed and laughed.

Another time I was over visiting I noticed a very nice male nude in a nice frame hanging on his living room wall. It was not tucked away in some distant bedroom where no one could see it. I asked Jimmy, "What does your mother think of that?" Jimmy chuckled his famous chuckle and said, "She gave it to me!" We laughed and laughed. I have a get well card on the kitchen counter and was just about to mail it to him. It is a funny card.

“ We are deeply shocked and sorrowful.

We can't imagine how we will say it to our babies: Jimmy loved them as his own children and they truly love him.

This will be the first big suffering of their lives but we are sure they will bring him in their hearts for all life long.

Being his friend was really a privilege.

We will never have a so marvellous special beloved friend like Jimmy is.

We use the present tense because someone said that when you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know.

So he changed his nature but he still lives.

We are sure he is now with his beloved mother.

We want to say goodbye to him in the same way we used to say, crying, each other at the airport:

"Don't cry because it's over: smile because it happened".

Today it's difficult Jimmy, but we'll do.

With all our true deep love,

Sergio and Simona Accardo.

“ Jimmy was the kind of coworker who cared enough to reach out to you when you had sickness or death in the family and offer an encouraging word. He was the type of coworker you could always laugh with, even during stressful times. Anyone who had a chance to work with him, loved his attitude and quickly became his friend. We will miss Jimmy dearly.

“ I loved Jimmy like a brother. We shared a love of laughter and a dry, dry sense of humor. Jimmy stood by me when my mother got sick and passed away. He was my manager when I was diagnosed with cancer, and was one of my "rocks" during my treatment and recovery. He always thought of others and was the kindest person that I've ever had the pleasure to know. He loved his family and his friends and I will miss him every day.

While my heart is so very sad, I know that he's with his Mom and he is in Heaven.

“ Jimmy was a wonderful person - always kind - tremendously helpful and someone who deeply cared for family and friends. He was a true gentlemen and always had a kind word to everyone. I will miss his can do attitude, his perseverance and his general willingness to do "whatever it takes". I know that the past year had been difficult for Jimmy but also that he possessed a tremendous inner strength. I will deeply miss him and will pray for his family and friends.
