“ For Grandpa Jim, with Love--

*He showed us his love by the work of his hands,
Father, grandfather, great-grand,
From the moment we drew our first breaths.
What a legacy he gave us, this man.*

*Innumerable hours of children's joy,
So much more than pieces of tree,
Were his magical horses, ziplines, and swings,
Beautiful playhouses brimming with glee.*

*Tulips of wood, treehouses high,
Rocking chairs, bed, violin,
A piece of his heart, every work of art
His love contained therein.*

*How lucky are we, his progeny,
To have received the gifts of his love?
He cradled our babes in the cradle he made.
He watches them now from above.*

*Now sleep, dear man, in a tree's embrace,
Calling you home to rest.
May your spirit find peace, your soul released,
Your family is forever blessed.*

“ So many good memories of my Uncle Jim. From my earliest memories he was there with my cousins, all part of my life. My best times with Uncle Jim have been when he came annually to visit us in Idaho. Everyone here looked forward to his visit every year and I am grateful that he made the trip here for my wedding. Virginia and I are both so happy we got to spend time with Jimmy at his 90th birthday.

I will miss and never forget my favorite Uncle.

Love Always, Donny
