“ I will always remember my childhood conversations with you. We lived in salt lake at the time and you would call and ask for me, it always maked me feel so special because you wanted to talk with me. You would tell me that you wanted to see me so you said to jump through the phone. I loved it I always imagined going through the wires to get to you. You and my mom would obviously talk before hand cause you would know what I was wearing. It was so simple but it made such an impact.

So now Jono it is your turn to jump through the phone and visit me. I know you are happy, since you are with your loved ones that you have missed. 💖 I will always love you.
