

Joan Margaret King Burleson

October 11, 1931 - November 3, 2012

Joan King Burleson passed away Saturday, November 04, 2012 at St. Luke's Baptist Hospital in San Antonio, Texas. She was born Joan Margaret King on October 11, 1931 in Wink, Texas to parents Hugh Mayes King and Lucille Warnock King. Mrs. Burleson spent her childhood in West Texas and attended Texas Tech University on a music scholarship. There she met Glenn W. Burleson, her husband, life-long friend and traveling companion. Not long after their marriage, Glenn re-enrolled in the United States Air Force where he eventually earned the rank of Major. During their time in the military, Mr. and Mrs. Burleson's children Glenda and Paul were born. The family traveled extensively while living in Japan, France, Germany, and Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Burleson retired to San Antonio where they continued to travel, raise their beloved Yorkshire terriers, and host dinner parties. Mrs. Burleson was an active member of The Hospitality Club, an avid bridge player, a devoted mother and a dedicated member of the Methodist Church. She is preceded in death by her parents Lucille and Mayes King, husband Major Glenn Burleson and children Glenda and Paul Burleson. Mrs. Burleson is survived by her cousin Jim Neal and wife Mary of Nacogdoches, TX, and their daughters Virginia of Cincinnati, OH and Erin of Chicago, IL as well as her good friend, Larry Anderson, caregiver Glenda Jahnke and her little Yorkie Tuffy.
