

Joan U. Clark

March 5, 1945 - June 11, 2022

A loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend, Joan Urbik Clark passed away surrounded by family on June 11, 2022, at the age of 77. She was born on March 5, 1945 in San Antonio, TX. She is preceded in death by her parents, Lionel and Lamae Urbik.

Joan is survived by her husband of 37 years, William Clark; daughters Anita Ledbetter, Suzie Garber and Felicia Hill; grandchildren Megan Ledbetter, Leigh Ledbetter, Susan Hill, Brandon Hill, Brittany Hill, Haley Garber, Brittany Garber, Zack Garber, and great grandchildren Olivia R. Herrera and Atas Hill, and a close group of life long friends.

Joan grew up in the Highland Hills neighborhood in the South Side of San Antonio, a community that she loved. She attended St. Margret Mary's Primary School before graduating Class of 1963 from Highlands High School. Joan went on to attend and graduate from Texas A&I University Kingsville before receiving a Masters in English from St. Mary's University. In 1968, she began teaching English at Kingsborough Middle School in Harlandale School District, where she formed life long friends with fellow teachers and former students, before retiring in 1999.

It was Joan's wish that in lieu of flowers, you may make a donation to the Animal Defense League of Texas.

A Memorial Service will be on Friday, June 17, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Services to conclude in chapel.

“Bittersweet day as I had the opportunity to sit down with my good friend David Velasquez and see some of my favorite teachers from Kingsborough Middle School(Go Knights!!!), but we were all there to say our final goodbyes and honor the life of my 7th-8th grade English Teacher Joan Urbik Clark. Few teachers cross your path as a student that leave a life-long impression on your life. Mrs. Urbik Clark was one. I was blessed to have known her. 🧑🏻🏫💔
