

Joan Wetta

September 8, 1945 - November 3, 2011

Joan was born in San Antonio Texas on September 8, 1945 to Rose M. Rigler, 83, of San Antonio. She attended McCollum High School and graduated from South Side High School in 1964. She married James G. Wetta on September 10, 1989. Joan worked at Market Square and La Villita in downtown San Antonio for over 30 years.

She is survived by here mother Rose Osborn, her step-sister Patricia Rodgers of New Braunfels, her step brother Marcus H. Osborn Jr. of Conroe, and half-brothers, Sparky Osborn of Swinney Switch, Ricky Osborn of San Antonio and Chares Sonny Osborn of LaVernia. Her husband James G. Wetta of San Antonio, her eldest son Walter F. Sifford III of Pleasanton, Texas, her twin sons Kevin and Kenneth Sifford of San Antonio, Texas, and her step-daughter Cheri Martini of San Antonio and step-son Tim Wetta of San Antonio. She was grandmother to 18 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren. She was loved by many relatives and former relatives, along with longtime friend Fay Damron of San Antonio and Karen Kline also of San Antonio.