

JoAnn Harvill Ramey

June 26, 1931 - December 7, 2007

JoAnn Harvill Ramey died December 7, 2007 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born in Humphrey, Arkansas June 26, 1931, the youngest daughter of Horace H. Harvill and Johnnie Mae Ryan Harvill. She graduated from Quachita Baptist College. In 1951 she married Edward Rodney Ramey of Searcy, Arkansas. Her beloved husband preceded her in death. The couple moved to Corpus Christi, Texas in 1955 then to Houston, Texas in 1957 where she was a homemaker and taught English for the Houston and Klein Independent School Districts. They retired to San Antonio, Texas in 1990 where she became an active member of Churchill Baptist Church. She was a soft-spoken, gracious woman of great faith who loved reading, sewing, and spending time in her garden. She is survived by sons Edward Ramey and wife Claudia of West Islip, New York, John Ramey and wife Lisa of Phenix City, Alabama and Andrew Ramey and wife Nur of Mercin, Turkey and a daughter, Rebecca Peterson and husband Carl of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Five granddaughters, four grandsons, two sisters, two brothers, and seventeen nieces and nephews also survive her. A Memorial Service to celebrate her life will be held at Churchill Baptist Church, December 21, 2007 at 11:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made in her honor to Churchill Baptist Church or the American Cancer Society.