

JoAnne S. and Luke A. Cyr

November 18, 2018

In loving memory of JoAnne S. Cyr and her grandson Luke A. Cyr who passed away after a tragic housefire on Sunday, November 18, 2018. JoAnne graduated from Radford University in 1973 and started a long and distinguished career with the Department of the Army. She was serving as the Chief of the United States Army's Medical Command's Analysis and Evaluation Division at the time of her passing. In her thirty-seven years of service she was awarded the Achievement Medal and Commander's Awards for Civil Service.

JoAnne had a true servant's heart and cared deeply for her family, friends and the soldiers that she served.

She is survived by her son Paul J. Cyr; father Elwood H. Shemwell and wife Neva; sister Nancy; brothers Scott, Paul, David and wife Alesha, Bob and wife Jennifer; nieces Paris Allison and Genevieve; nephews Browning, Reed, Charles and Alexander. JoAnne was predeceased by her mother Genevieve K. Shemwell.

Luke A. Cyr was five and is survived by his parents Paul Cyr and Lauren Henson. He was enrolled at Howard Early Childhood Center. He was a joy to all he touched and will be deeply missed by his teachers, fellow students, friends and family.
