

Joanne Singleton

April 9, 1925 - April 22, 2015

Born on April 9, 1925 to Joe Kennedy and Mable Stiewig Kennedy, Joanne graduated from Burbank High School, where she was an R.O.T.C. officer and a cheerleader. She met C.B. Singleton at church, and they married on Aug. 7, 1943. Known for her outgoing personality and funny stories, Joanne was a renowned cook and hostess who loved to plan parties and trips for her friends. She and C.B. were founding members of Trinity Church, and she befriended, counseled, and opened her home to countless people over the course of her life. When her beloved C.B. died in 2001, she spent a number of years as a widow before marrying a childhood friend, Ray Anthony, who preceded her in death, as well. After a long illness, she went home to be with the Savior she had loved and served her entire life on April 22, 2015.

She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Greg and Martha Singleton and Les and Tonya Singleton, grandchildren Anne Singleton Bridges and husband, Robbie Bridges, Matt Singleton, Dustin Singleton and wife Lauren, and Brandy Singleton, and great-grandchildren Josiah and Levi Bridges, and Kylie and Skylar Singleton. She is also survived by her sister, Jackie Gross, and brother, Bill Kennedy and wife, Mary.

Joyful laughter and unconditional love and friendship, both motivated by her deep and abiding faith in Jesus Christ, were the hallmarks of her life, and the gifts she leaves behind for those who knew her.
