AVALOS

Joe Avalos, a Beloved Son, Loving Father, brother, and friend to all who knew him was taken from us way to soon at the age of 52 following a brief illness. He went quietly and quickly in his family home – in the room he grew up in surrounded by the people he grew up with. Joe was taken from his family's world prematurely just as he was brought into this world prematurely. The empty space he left when he passed will be impossible to fill.

Our darling Joe was loved in a way that most people only dream about – EVERYONE loved Joey. He had an abundance of friends his entire life. He loved reading and learning anything he could. His voracious reading was a fabulous obsession.

Joe had several degrees but his wealth of knowledge went far beyond his formal education. There was not a problem he could not solve, a product he could not improve, an electronic he couldn't fix or task he could not accomplish. He was known by many to be the most brilliant person they had ever met, but most also thought he was the kindest. His friends loved his permanent smile and great personality. His smile was huge and fantastic and spoke for itself.

Survivors include his parents: Ofelia F. Avalos and Joe C. Avalos; daughter, Rachel Margaret Avalos; son, Daniel Paz Avalos; sister, Odilia T. Avalos; brother, George Ann Marie Avalos, and a host of friends. Joey, not a day will go by that we won't miss you and wish you were still here with us. We love you, our own darling Angel.

....."Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy."
