

Joe M. Bernal Sr.

October 20, 1920 - September 18, 2008

Our dear and beloved Joe M. Bernal Sr., born in LaOjuela, Durango, Mexico on November 28, 1920 to Francisco and Francisca Bernal, has gone to be with the Lord. He passed on September 18, 2008. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Maria Paula Bernal, his sister Anastacia Bernal, his brothers Jesus and Francisco Bernal, his ten children; Socorro Mier Manuel, Virginia Gonzalez Josue, Felix I. Bernal Lupita, Rosalinda B. DeLeon Rosendo, John Bernal Carol, Joe M. Bernal Jr. JoNan, Jesse Bernal, Roberto C. Bernal Florinda, Raul E. Bernal Monica, Frances S. Ortiz John; 37 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. He immigrated to the U.S. in 1955, a move he was always very proud of. He loved fishing, hunting, and sports in general. He was an avid boxing fan, having had boxed professionally as a young man. He taught himself to play the harmonica, and enjoyed playing for us on our birthdays. He was a very wise and knowledgeable man. He retired as a Meat Market Manager from Deluxe Supermarket after 29 years of service. He had many friends and was loved by all who met him.
