 Dina Saucedo

“ Would like to give my deepest condolences to the Coronado family.. i met dad 22yrs ago when i met my best friend (his daughter Jessica). He was always so sweet to me and treated me like his own daughter. As we got older and both me and jessica had daughters the same age.. he would always call our daughters little Dina and little Jessica. Always told us how our daughters reminded him of us when we were growing up. He will always have a place in my heart. You will truly be missed dad. Love you. And thank you for always being so sweet to me and my little family. Once again my condolences. Love you all!♡♡♡
