God sends Angels quietly into our lives - little ones, big ones, some we never see. To guide, to protect, to strengthen us. Some just to give us special joy. Often they quickly go and we never know that they were angels til they’ve gone. Some stay awhile and leave footprints on our hearts. However, they come to us, no matter how long they stay, they are messengers from God. Proof that he never abandons us and loves us eternally.

Psalm 91
