“ Joe was one of the most caring guys I knew. He was always smiling every time you'd see him. He loved to bbq and have gatherings. When I first met him he had me try some food he had cooked and man was it good. Through out the years I would always say he was my grandpa and who would've known he would marry my Grandma Ruth and become my grandpa for real. I miss him so so much and I know he is at peace. Rest easy Grandpa Joe we love you.
