

Joe Allen Peña

June 25, 1956 - October 2, 2017

It is with great sadness and a heavy heart that we announce the untimely death of our father, Joe Allen Peña. On Monday, October 2nd 2017, at 61 years of age, surrounded by family, he went to be with his Lord. He fought a long battle with pancreatitis and the many complications that followed. Joe is preceded by his parents, Valentina Peña Saucedo and Joe T. Peña, and his brother, Victor Peña. Joe lived an absolutely full life while married for 34 years to the love of his life, Ruby. He was present at every significant and meaningful milestone for all three of his surviving children Mary, Anna, and Joseph. He was a man of influence and admiration for his two sons-in-Law, Bryan and Gabe. Most importantly, he was a caring and affectionate grandpa to his three surviving grandchildren Christian, Ava, and Aubrey. He is also survived by his loving sisters and brother, Yolanda R. Rodriguez, Guadalupe F. Santos, and Samuel R. Saucedo. Joe spent the last 30 years working for Allen & Allen, where he made several life-long friendships. He was a loving father, brother, son, and husband whose memory will forever be remembered.
