“Wisdom, strong work ethic, and “make wise choices” were the hallmark of Mr. Perez, as he shaped and strongly influenced the lives of two young men at Central Catholic during the mid 1980’s. During my freshman year I was fortunate to have gained a best friend in Andy and also his wonderful family. Mr. Joe Perez would take time to bestow insight, guidance, and years of experience on us resulting in simple and life lasting advice. I knew Mr. Perez as a kind and loving patriarch to his family. Linda, Patty, Andy, and family, please accept our sincere condolences. My family in Texas and Maryland have you in our prayers.
