Joe was a humble and grateful man who loved the company of others. He would always welcome a challenge and loved to work alongside others. He was a great inspiration to myself and an encouraging individual. He was funny, strong willed, and loved to celebrate and make time to get back to the basics in life. He will be missed but never forgotten.

I saw Joe, only lone time, But it seems like I knew him for so long. One day I met this beautiful young lady(Nichole). Very well mannered. She always talk about her Dad very highly. Right away we became more than friends. She was like one of my daughters.Mr.Joe S. He raise his daughter, with lots of love, and good morals. Nichole , your Dad is pain free. And your beautiful Guardian Angel, we'll always guide you. Your Dad was a special man. You have very special place in your heart. God give the family funeral Strength. May you Rest In Peace. Amen
