

Joe V. Uriegas

July 26, 1949 - June 1, 2020

Beloved son, brother, husband, father, grandfather and friend, Joe Viagran Uriegas went to be with the Lord on June 1, 2020 at the age of 70. Joe was born in San Antonio, Texas on July 26, 1949 to Marcelo and Adela Uriegas. Joe is preceded in death by his daughter, Lisa Ann Alaniz; his parents and sister-in-law Yolanda Uriegas.

He is survived by his loving wife of 52 years Evangeline B. Uriegas; son, Joe B. Uriegas (Christina); son-in-law, Jacob Alaniz; brothers, Marcelo Uriegas, Jr., Roy Uriegas (Hope), David Uriegas (Irene), Freddie Uriegas (Naomi), Roger Uriegas (Lupe); grandchildren, Anna Garcia (Josh), Katey Williamson (Ryan), Joseph Uriegas, Anthony Alaniz, Vincent Alaniz and numerous nieces and nephews.

Joe lived his life working hard from his military career of 21 years to his many colorful adventures after he completed his duties with the Air Force. For many years he worked with the San Antonio ISD servicing children with disabilities; very active in the after-school programs that included computer learning, baking, art and more. He also found the time to drive VIA buses and even developed a 30-acre piece of land that fronted the Nueces River. He and his dad built a cabin and barn on this land where his family would retreat for many weekends. By 1999, there were health issues that slowed him down physically but his strong faith, keen humor and determined attitude kept his spirits up the rest of his life. He did manage to continue utilizing his farm tractor everywhere he could and loved driving to beautiful places across the country. O Jesus of Love, we give you all the joys and happiness of our family life with Joe and when one after the other we fall asleep in your Blessed Bosom, may all our family be united again in your Sacred Heart.

Vange and the Uriegas Family. I offer my sincere, deepest condolences to you. I always enjoyed taking to Joe. We were both retired Air Force veterans, having served 22+ years. We had a lot of common ground and experiences to share from service to our great country. He had a great attitude about life, was always cheerful with a big smile on his face. He also told some great stories. I will always have fond memories. God bless you all. Bill Murray

*Vangie, after I read about the life that Joe had, I remember when the two of you were voted 'Most Likely to Succeed'. It's always difficult to lose someone like Joe who is so very dear to all, but the special memories that you cherish of your life with him, will always be in your heart. May those memories comfort you and the sympathy of family and friends sustain you. My deepest sympathies are with you in this hour of your sorrow. I believe the stars in heaven are windows for our loved ones to watch over us. Blessings for you Vangie and both of your families.
