“ I will never forget the kindness Joey showed me. He was there to help — all you had to do was ask. He was fearless, funny and wild. When I think of Joey, I always see him smiling — because he was always smiling! He will be missed, greatly. My heart goes out to those he left behind.

“ Joey was an important part of my high school years. He was a good friend. He had the best smile. He laughed at all my silly jokes. (He was a lot funnier!) So many great memories of hanging out with him at Valley High with the youth group. Kiki and George were our youth group leaders. They planned lots of fun activities. "Rescue Squad" with Larry Standley. He went with my sis Cheryl to our prom -- we double dated (me and John Laymon -- we were the only 2 couples not dancing but we were laughing our heads off! Our high school band rivalry (friendly of course). Joey felt more like family than friend. Even after all these years I know he would do anything for me if I needed him to. He and I spoke on the phone several times over the years to catch up. He was kind. I remember him talking about his daughters and his love for them. Such a proud dad. To Eliseo, John, Jamie -- I am so sorry for the loss of your brother. I trust he was greeted by your mom and dad with open arms. Love to you all -- Jana Cantrell Hausburg

“ The First Salute, A first command, It all begins, When we raise our hand, A long standing tradition, Of mutual respect, Where each party knows, Just what to expect, Many salutes are rendered, Knowing they won't be returned, A simple sign to honor, To those it was earned, It is this highest honor, We hope one day to receive, A salute we can not return, When this world we do leave. - Robert Longley
