“ All of John Callahan's family have my sympathy over their loss. His passing is a loss, too, for those of us In the photography classes we shared, John mentioned his wife and daughter from time to time and it was obvious how proud he was of both. His still life photographs inspired and impressed me, and I am fortunate to own one of the beautiful landscapes he shot - mine taken out at Lackland AFB. I've known him for over ten years and will sincerely miss his wry humor as well as his encouragement in a shared hobby.
