“ *Brothers and Sisters share a special bond,
That bond is strong and true,
Sometimes Families break and fall apart with everyone going separate ways,
Friends may come and go, relationships may drift apart,
But Brothers and Sisters are forever,
No matter how many miles apart they are both physically or emotionally,
Though the sun rises in the east and sets in the west,
Though the seasons change we are still family,
What God has ordained no man can change.
I wish you peace and love in your new journey,
And, may the Lord be with you and your Family to help with the sorrow of your passing and to get through the days ahead.
Love,
Quannie*

“ My heart is heavy with the loss of of my grandpa. He was a special man in so many ways. I knew I could come to him for anything and he would always make me smile and laugh. One of my most special memories was when he told me to have his great granddaughter on his birthday. I was so happy to call him and tell him his special birthday gift had arrived. Thank you Lord for placing him in our lives and receiving him in you kingdom.

With Love
