

John Richard Fabrizio

December 4, 1933 - March 14, 2018

John Richard Fabrizio passed away the evening of March 14, 2018 in Richmond, Texas. He was born December 4, 1933 in Pueblo, Colorado. As a young man he enlisted in the United States Air Force and served during the Korean War. After serving in the Air Force, he began a career at Eastern Airlines and served with them for 32 years, retiring as an Operations Manager in San Antonio, Texas. He had a fondness for music and singing. His absolute favorite song was "That's Amore." In addition to music, John loved basketball and was an avid fan of the San Antonio Spurs.

John is preceded in death by his loving wife of 39 years, Cecilia, his parents Dominic and Minnie Fabrizio, and brother Joey Fabrizio. John is survived by his children Lynda Hutchings, Karen Fabrizio, Catherine Fabrizio, Karen Manning, and Dennis Fabrizio, as well as four grandchildren, six great grandchildren, numerous nephews and nieces, his sister Anna Ciruli and brother Sammy Fabrizio.

He had a smile that would light up the room and blue eyes that could melt a heart. Everyone who met him would always say how much they enjoyed spending time with him and how he had a heart of gold. John will certainly be missed by everyone who knew him.
