“ Johnny was a TRUE friend. He basically took me under his wing when I first met him 35 plus years ago. Johnny and I enjoyed many memorable moments on and off the golf course. We would take fishing trips to the Land Cut, where there is nothing or nobody for miles , and sometimes only the two of us would go for days when nobody wanted to join us . We toyed with our own cars and trucks , but most of all we confided in each other. We had trust and faith in each other. We always talked and many of our conversations were about the things we cherished , our family , our kids , and close friends. Going to really miss him but I know he is not suffering anymore. Already miss you buddy. Say hi to my brother, my father, Cookie, and all the other friends we shared that have gone before you. I promise we will see each other one day again.

Mr. Gonzales, Thank you for your service in the U.S. Army and for being a wonderful neighbor. You made us feel like family with your charming smile and your friendly wave, as we drove by. Rest in peace dear friend and neighbor. You'll be missed.

*Elvira,
Thank you so much for always helping my parents with so many things, but mostly for your support and compassion during this time. Mom is so blessed to have you so close.*
