

SMSgt John E. Hearld, USAF, Retired

July 9, 1950 - November 17, 2024

A Man of Inspiration | A Man of Perseverance | A Man of Faith

On Sunday, July 9, 1950, the Lord sent an angel to cheer, comfort, and inspire many. John Earl Hearld, Sr., was born in Richmond, Texas, to the parents of Robert and Mary Dee (Luckey) Hearld, both deceased. John was reared and was well-known and loved by the community. His parents provided a godly foundation for John to be a man of good character.

Upon graduating from Evan E. Worthing Senior High School (Houston, Texas), John considered enlisting in the Armed Forces. Their "Aim High" slogan resonated with, and he enlisted in the USAF. His willingness to learn and dedication above reproach led him from being an Airman Basic (E-1) to Senior Master Sergeant (E-8). Sergeant Hearld had exceptional organizational and management skills in Human Resources. The USAF rewarded his talent and skills with many awards and service decorations medals throughout his 26 years of Honorable Service.

The steadfast love of his life was the profound joy of his 50-year marriage to Pearl V. Williams. Together, they formed a blended family with a bond built on love, respect, and unwavering commitment to their four sons.

Those left in God's Care are his soulmate, Pearl; sons, Junior Williams, Roger Williams, Randall Williams (deceased), and John E. Hearld, Jr., nine lovable grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; brother, Ricky Hearld; sister Elaine Neal, other dear relatives and friends like you.

John departed this earth on November 15, 2024, age 74, with his family by his bedside. Special thanks to Gracii Zamora for all the outstanding care and wonderful personality shown each day.
