“ John was my first “official” boyfriend in middle school, I am just hearing of his passing, my prayers and condolences to the Krupalla family. We had gotten back in touch in 2020-2021 and I had went to Miranda’s beautiful sweet 16 party he put forth so much effort in doing that party for her. I will never, ever forget John, he will always hold a special place in my heart and I remember shopping with him at Rolling Oaks Mall, how he would always wear blue everything, and how he was so proud to shout out his address  HIGH OAK (he was proud of that house) and his eyelashes would put me in a trance. I will never forget you JBK, xoxo.

“ I was one of John's sixth grade teachers at Olympia Elementary and remember John and all of his family fondly. I remember him fondly as I do his entire family. It is very sad to hear that someone so young and so loved and needed is gone this soon in life. May God bless your entire family during this difficult time and know he left and imprint on this world.
