

John Charles McLean

April 29, 1930 - September 20, 2019

John Charles McLean (a.k.a. J.C.) joined his beloved wife Bonnie on Sep. 20th, 2019, aged 89 years. He was independent & healthy until the end, living a long, fruitful, & happy life. He raised three children & two grandchildren: Janora, Charlotte, her two daughters; Christina & Sara, & Mark his only son. J.C. was born in Llano Texas to Anita & J. Charles McLean along with his two brothers Douglas & Hampton, all of whom have gone to their maker. He loved the country living and was a lifelong fan of fishing & hunting. His venison sausage was legendary around these parts. J.C. served with honor in the Coast Guard during the Korean War for which he was Veteran & long time member of the VFW. J.C. was of good humor & quick wit. He loved debating anything & everything. Every other Sunday morning he would gather the family for one of his large home-cooked breakfasts. Loved by many, respected by all, he will be remembered always as Papa.
