

John D. Molnar

January 6, 1947 - December 8, 2021

It is with deep sadness that the family of John D. Molnar announce his peaceful passing on December 8th, 2021, at the age of 75.

Even though John endured a lengthy battle with Parkinson's and a more recent diagnosis of heart failure, he never lost his sense of humor or his kind and loving demeanor.

John was born and raised in San Antonio and served in the United States Navy after graduating from high school. He was married to Mary Sue (Davis) Molnar for 41 years. He was a wonderful and loving husband and a dedicated father.

John was the owner of a small trucking company. He enjoyed fishing at the coast, trips to the casino, and visiting with friends and family. In his final years, when work, travel, and hobbies became limited, John's granddaughter Georgia would always bring a smile to his face.

John is survived by his wife Mary Sue, son Jason Molnar, daughter Jayme (Molnar) Deaver, granddaughter Georgia Deaver, sisters Trinda Littlefield, Binda Bishop, Darleine Zenner (Husband Robert), Winette Minton (Husband Bobby), and lots of nieces and nephews.

At the family's request, a private service will be held at a later date.

“ My best days of fishing always included John. He was skilled, patient and always ready for a wise crack joke! I treasure your friendship in my days of past. His love for Mary was forever! He was so proud of the best catch he ever caught.

“ Dear Mary,

I was informed of the passing of uncle John. I am very sorry for your loss. Loosing a loved one is a very painful experience. In all the times I referenced him, I always referred to him as my “cool uncle!” We shared many stories due to our common experiences as truck drivers. The biggest impressions he made on me is when I was a preteen. He had a corvette stingray he drove and raced. I remember him picking mom and me up at the bus stop.

He took us to grandmas, when she left my (biological) father. He became a bit of the father figure for me. I looked up to him as such, until my mom met Larry. I know words can not fill the empty space left in the life and hearts of his family.

I want you to know that your loss is felt by many, such as myself. Last year I lost my father and now I have lost my uncle. He filled a void for me as a young boy. He brought me a great deal of joy during a very confusing time for me.

I will be forever grateful. A saying that I often use when departing friends is “I will see you again. If not in this world, then the next.” I now know that unfortunately I will not see uncle John again in this world.

Although, I am saddened by it, I take great comfort in knowing he is without pain and I will see him in the Paradise that Jesus spoke of. He will be healthy and happy. “For I will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Rev 21:3,4.

I pray your heart is comforted and held in love and kindness in this time of great loss for you and your family.

With sincere love, your nephew. Gary Littlefield

“ He was the sweetest brother anyone could have. He was always a hard worker he used to get up before dawn go wrap his newspapers and do his route then off to school and repeat for the evening paper back in the days. He was kind heart person and I never heard him say a bad thing about anything or anyone. Will miss him very much. Love you and will see you in a few.

“ I remember John as such a sweet, caring, and gentle man. He really enjoyed coming to our fellowships & he was one of Mary's greatest supporters & his love for her was evident everytime he looked at her. I know even when he didn't feel well he was involved at the meetings or wherever he found himself & he participated with word & deed when he was able. I enjoyed his company, he had a beautiful spirit about him! Thank you Lord for all the time he had here on the earth & be with Mary, their son & family through this whole journey of loss!

“ What a wonderful man! I will remember his smile and his support of his wife and family. Even when he did not feel like attending our meetings, he still showed up fully engaged!! that makes him special in my book. It's easy to do what we want to do when we "feel like it "but the true testament of John's character was that he showed up because of his commitment. As a nurse I KNOW he had many times when he 'didn't feel like it" but he showed up. Thanks, John, for what your life showed the world!!!
May God continue to Bless the Molnar family and friends! Forever grateful,Edwina

“ John's sense of humor was one of his greatest traits. He had a way of making you feel like he had known you for all of your life. He will be remembered as a great husband, father, grandfather and friend. I'll treasure many memories but especially the day that John, Jason and I went on that fishing expedition. John wasn't skunked that day! He will be missed by so many but his memory, smile and kindness will always be remembered. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I'll always remember John's engaging smile which he seemed to always have available to share. What a sweet, sweet man! I still remember chatting with him on the sofa at Skillman Church when everyone else was in a meeting. He was so kind to me that day. My love and prayers are with your family. I know John will be missed dearly.
