“ I didn't get to know John as well as I wanted, but I knew I was gonna love my brother-in-law the first time we met - I told him he was my favorite. I'll never forget my trip to SA & all the sites he took us to, the delicious German food, and the venison sausage he introduced me to. Larry & I are so sad that he passed on; our love & prayers to all the family.

“ My dad was my rock when things felt like they were spinning out of control. He would always tell me to “get a grip!” and it worked. What I remember most was him teaching me and my friends to ski at the lake. He didn’t have the most patience. I can remember him yelling to one friend in particular “dammit! Grab the rope!” I just knew everybody across the lake heard that and I was so embarrassed. But she definitely learned how to ski that weekend and we had a great time. It did not seem to bother her at all that my dad was hollering at her while teaching her how to ski. It seemed like the most natural thing in the world to her. He was a great dad. He welcomed our friends and took care of our family. I will miss him everyday but I will be guided by the lessons he taught me throughout my life. I love and miss you Dad.

My prayers to Uncle John's family. He was a very special man. Strong, stubborn, loving, caring, and always there for to give a hand. I will miss and love him always.
