

John A. Rothenbach Jr.

October 30, 1945 - August 5, 2021

John A. Rothenbach Jr. was born in Tacoma, Washington on October 30, 1945 and passed away on August 5, 2021 at the age of 75. He is preceded in death by his grandson Christopher. Survivors include his loving wife of 52 yrs, Rebecca M. Rothenbach, brother-in-law who was more like a brother, David (Jesus), daughter Sandra, son John III (Melissa), grandchildren Andrew (Jennifer), Jacob (Reyna), Clarissa, Nicolas (Deveney) and Marissa, great grandchildren, 2 brothers, a sister, numerous nieces, nephews and other family members and great friends. John was many things to many people because he was always willing to lend a hand and fix anything saying, "If it was made by man, it can be fixed by man."

John graduated from South Side High School in 1964 with tremendous encouragement from his Aunt Helia Moore-Sepulveda, who was pivotal in molding him into the respectful and compassionate person we all loved. John served his country in the Navy during Vietnam (1964-1968) which exposed him to the asbestos that would complicate his health in his final years. During his service, he met many lifelong friends that he enjoyed seeing during annual reunions, when his health permitted. John spent the rest of his working years as a mechanic in rental yards and served as director of maintenance at Southeast Baptist Hospital where he was known to be able to fix or build anything. John spent his afterwork hours clearing land, building sheds, digging wells, installing electrical wiring, helping anyone needing a hand or advice, and teaching his children and grandchildren the value of a hard day's work. He also spent his time taking his family to Big Bend National Park, his favorite place in the world. John will be greatly missed.

Visitation will begin on Wednesday, August 11, 2021 from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
