He loved Bob Wills Texas Swing music and frequently sang his signature song "San Antonio Rose" to the enjoyment of many family and friends, leaving a song in our hearts and delightful memories for a lifetime.

Johnnie loved his wife Dorothy and celebrated 66 years of marriage. He was a devoted father, grandfather and great grandfather, and especially enjoyed family vacations to Rockport, Texas every Fourth of July, camping at Goose

Island, boating on Canyon and Inks Lakes, fishing on the coast and Cibolo Creek, and spending nights in the open air on his farm in Kosciusko, Texas. The family wishes to thank the staff, the nuns and priests at St. Francis Nursing Home for their compassionate and loving care of Dad. The Moy family truly appreciates all their kind and thoughtful ways for the time Dad was there.

“ As uncles go, Uncle Johnnie was more like a second dad! His memory always brings a smile. I will never forget his wonderful stories whether from his favorite recliner, tailgate of a truck or lawn chair in the backyard. Never missed the chance to visit when I was able to be back in San Antonio. My most shared story of his has to do with one of his mean and dangerous Brahma cow’s and the extra precautions it took to work with her calves. I asked him, “Why do you hold on to that old mean Son of a gun?” And with that characteristic tilt of his head, big smile and flourishing hand sweep, he said “just look at that pretty calf!” My life was blessed richly as one of his nephews. I join with you in mourning his loss and celebrate as well the honorable and wonderful life he led. Peace be with you , much love Roy
