“ From our family to yours, we offer our sincerest and most heartfelt condolences to the Cruz family. We lived across the street from Bo and he was always such a sweet, gentle man. We're thankful for the friendship that he shared with my kids, always lending a helping hand, even when it wasn't needed. We pray that the family will find comfort and peace in knowing that he is in a much better place. Much love to the family. Jo Ann, Saul, Adrian Valerie and Ruby at 215.

“ Bo and I worked together for years in the late 90's and early 2000's. Although we lost contact over the years, he was a special person and friend. I have memories of the two of us working the night shift together and leaving early in the morning to have a super taco at Rolando's restaurant before going home. Bo always had a positive outlook on life and could make anyone around him laugh out loud. He will be missed, my thoughts are with his family.
