

Jon Anton Bueche

April 11, 1963 - February 17, 2016

Jon Anton Bueche was born in San Antonio on April 11, 1963 and went home to his Holy Father February 17, 2016. He was 52.

Jon was raised in a loving family in San Antonio, Texas. He graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 1981. After high school, Jon joined the local electrical workers union and ultimately earned his Master Electrician License. Jon worked for many years as an electrician, home inspector, and facilities manager. He was also an accomplished professional musician that played in several bands in San Antonio and surrounding areas.

Jon was a loving father, a helpful son, trusted brother, uplifting youth soccer and baseball coach, devoted Catholic, member of the Knights of Columbus, and a very talented guitar player and musician. Jon enjoyed cooking and barbecuing, fishing, coaching, being with family and friends, watching the San Antonio Spurs and Texas Rangers.

Jon is survived by his mother Dolores Bueche, his sons Derek Bueche, Specialist Matthew Bueche Army and wife Katy, and son Ryan Bueche, brother Fred and wife Robin Bueche, brother Edward and wife Christi Bueche, sister Christine and husband Doug Roderick, sister Marianne and husband Rex Petty, sister Clare and husband Major Scott Parsons Army. Jon also had seventeen nieces and nephews, and two grandchildren Liam and Avery Bueche. Jon was preceded in death by his father Fred A. Bueche, Jr. and by his grandparents.

Additionally, Jon leaves behind many good friends and co-workers. His welcoming smile and warm, fun loving personality will be greatly missed.
