“ When I joined The Wood Agency, I was relieved to find that Jon was a fellow Texan's fan amid the sea of Cowboy fans. He was fascinating to me because even when you were talking about sports with him, he was already thinking about the schedule a month down the road, the potential playoff match-ups, etc.. He was 5 steps ahead of everyone in his thinking with everything. He was a truly brilliant person in every aspect and we will miss his insight, his sense of humor and his awesome Halloween costumes. My prayers are with Rachel, his family and everyone at the office. We will all miss you immensely.
