“ Jonathan and I grew up together, we attended school (Connell & Wheatley) together, we came from the Riverside Apartments, we played football, we played basketball and we were friends. My sister, Jeannette Mendoza told me about his passing, and I am truly sorry for not being able to attend his services. I wanted to share my sentiments and condolences about his passing. He was always a class act in my book and he knew the true meaning to family and friends. I wanted to express my feelings to his entire family that he will always be remembered in my heart. I am sending Jonathan and his family my deepest sorrows. May God Bless his soul for all eternity.
Love,
James A. Mendoza
