

Jonell Mary O'Bar

October 28, 1922 - June 5, 2005

O'Bar

Jonell Mary O'Bar age of 82 of San Antonio, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, June 5, 2005. She was born in Hondo, Texas to Ida and Alfred Bader. During WWII, she worked at the Hondo Army Airfield and at the Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, she then moved to California and returned to San Antonio to work as the Senior Executive Secretary for Shell Oil Corp. Jonell returned back to US Federal Government Service and retired from Kelly Air Force Base. She also served for a number of years on the Parent Teachers Association at Holy Name School and was a member of Holy Name Catholic Church. Jonell enjoyed traveling and working in her yard and was an avid Spurs fan. She is survived by her three loving children: George O'Bar, Jodene Fields Conklin, and Colleen Ellis. Her five grandchildren include Charlie Fields, Jason and Welden Lankford, Brandon and Tyler O'Bar. A heartfelt note of thanks to everyone who helped throughout our time of need. Jonell will be laid to rest at Mission Parks on Military Drive.

Services

Memorial services will be held on Wednesday, June 8, 2005 at 11:00 AM at Holy Name Catholic Church. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to the American Cancer Society in her memory.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Jodene, my prayers and concerns are with you and your brother and sister and families. I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I know you have found peace, you know that your mom is in a better place and happy to be with her Mother. She lives on in your hearts

Mary Esther Muniz - June 07, 2005 at 12:00 AM