“ Dr. Sepulveda - devoted & loving son , husband,father & grandfather, the most dedicated & honorable dentist, best of colleagues & truest of all friends - the epitome of a gentleman... I am too heart-broken to say anymore except I am in your debt forever. With gratitude, Cynthia Stockwell

ME

“ We met Mr. Joe Sepulveda over 30 years ago. He was a man of absolute dignity, integrity,and decency. We remember his kind and attentiveness disposition whenever we spoke with him. His passing leaves a void in our hearts and will be dearly missed, but rest knowing that he is in the everlasting presence of our Lord.

My first job was with Dr. Sepulveda and it was a great learning experience with such a wonderful and generous man. I worked with him approximately five years in the late 60's and early 70's. May he rest in peach and may perpetual light shine upon him. My condolences to his family. Dianna Ibarra Mendez
