“ From the Elgabry family (Liam, Lina, Alaa, Yesenia): Jose. We miss you so dearly. You shared your love with us unconditionally. Loved with us when we needed it most, gave us the biggest hugs before saying see you soon, cried with us in our pain, laughed with us to share joy. Your stories will be forever remembered. You were our life and love you and we just miss you. It seems like this is a huge nightmare that we can't call you or talk to you. We pray that you are with God because you, you are the only person that was on this earth with a heart of gold. Nobody on this earth is like you and you more than deserve to have a pedestal next to God. We will always remember you in everything we see, your favorite flowers, your favorite trees that you liked to drive by, our road trip where we just talked for hours or all the times we just got lost driving around. Of course we can't forget your endless stories from when you were a kid with your chicken, to the stories of your mom, to remembering and going through each sister and brother you had along with each niece and nephew you had and who they were related to and when you found them. Every time we see a motorcycle any where(the stories of the Bandidos). There are so many memories in all that we do every day. We will miss you and pray for you everyday! We were not family but friends and like Amo Jose said, " friends are like the family we got lucky enough to choose and everything happens for a reason ❤️

“ I met Jose about 10yrs ago. He'd call the clinic I worked at and would ask if I could possibly squeeze him in for an adjustment. 9 times out of 10, I made it happen for him. He was a wise man, energetic, unique, caring, and giving. I love you Jose! Thank you for the wise words and lunches we spent together. See you later. Rest, my dear friend.

“ Here is some of my thoughts : Having so many fond memories of my uncle Joey and spending time with him over the years. My special memories from being a kid and being so excited to see him and spending time when he would come visit. He was bigger than light and very special growing up in my eyes. From remembering when Mom would say how much she loves her baby brother. My heart is full of grief and sadness but I will always remember him with beautiful memories. Rest peacefully Tio all my love always. Ronnie

“ *It sounds like a poignant moment amidst a difficult time. Sharing a memory like that must have been meaningful for everyone present. Such moments of connection can be truly special, especially during times of loss. It's wonderful that you had that opportunity to connect with your tio Joey. “ It is with a heavy heart to hear that our beloved Uncle Joey has passed . His infectious laughter and smiles with his unwavering kindness touched everyone he met. On behalf of Jose and Maria Herrera and family Joe Herrera, George Herrera, Yolanda Castano, Carlos Herrera, Cindy Gutierrez, Raul Herrera, Roland Herrera we will forever cherish memories we shared . I remember when we would go to visit Uncle Joey in Las Vegas!! The Road trip would begin. It would take one call to his sister Maria to get on the road and the round up was on and on board. Although Marie was always there on a drop of a dime for her little brother with her trips to stay with him sometimes up to two months at a time. Uncle Joey & Uncle Ron wouldn't want her to come back but understood she had Dad back home and the Queen she would. One of our fondest memories was the road trips any chance Mom had a reason to visit her little brother she would. He loved being around family. He would be sure to let anyone feel welcomed and invited with no reservation needed. It was like it fed his soul. So many memories he was quite an entertainer. He loved to cook dinner, sit around, laugh & joke, till we would pass out and do it all over again the next day. Showing all of us the best of Las Vegas go gambling and take photos . The warmth he brought to our lives will always stay with us and live in our hearts. We are grateful for the countless memories we shared with him and even though he is no longer here, we will cherish him forever. His spirit will carry on. So until we see your smile again we will hold you in our heart and mind. A shining example, OUR UNCLE JOEY the best human kind. May you Rest In Peace and sit up above with all our Angels.

*Respectfully & Behalf of ,
