

Jose A. Briones

August 28, 1948 - July 23, 2020

A beloved husband, father, grandfather, uncle, godfather, and friend, Jose A. Briones passed away on July 23, 2020, in San Antonio, TX. He was born on August 28, 1948, in Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, MX. He is preceded in death by his parents Jose and Oralia Briones, and his sisters Adriana Villasenor, and Olga Zavala.

Dad, Grandpa, 'Tio Pepe', Charo, Jose was a man who held many names and titles through his life that reflected his love and dedication to his family. He was incredibly proud to be a father and grandfather, not only to his own family but to anyone who needed the paternal wisdom he had.

Jose was a good friend and even better man who would give his shirt for a friend in need. He believed that people are inherently good; That honor, courage, and virtue mean everything. He was a man of great moral character, who would stand up for anyone who needed help.

Jose was above all, a kind soul who made friends everywhere he went. He had a special way of making an impression on everyone he met and his larger than life personality will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Jose is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Juanita G. Briones; daughter, Beth Briones; grandchildren, Joseph Briones and Oralia Kintner; one great-grandchild on the way; sisters, Elda J. Franco (Hector) and Maria O. Fuentes; brothers, Pablo Briones and Oscar Briones; and numerous nieces, nephews, beloved godchildren, and other extended family members.

There are many sayings Jose was known for, and while they will be remembered fondly by those who knew him, it is probably best that they are not published here today.

When you think of Jose, celebrate the many good memories you have of him.

Remember that life is fragile and short and should be lived to the fullest.

Visitation will be on Friday, August 7, 2020, from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m. A rosary is to be recited at 6:30 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South. Services to conclude in the chapel.

“ Pepe, thank you for always looking after my dear Papi and my brother Tony. Last time I saw you, we were at my Papi's house during a Bar B Que that Tony had for his birthday. Thank you for always being there for them, and I know that if I would have reached out to you, you would be there for me, too. We were so blessed to be part of your family, and even though we never saw each other much, we knew of you, and we loved you. You will be missed on this earth, but I know that you will be celebrating with your parents, sisters, and my parents. I just know that we gain another angel to look after us. Until we see each other again.

Beth - we are here for you and your father would be so proud of the way you composed yourself this evening. He will always be watching over you and your family. Take care of your mom and your beautiful family. Big hugs and lots of love!

*Love,
Rosa Chapa*

“ My deepest condolences to the Briones Family. "As some people journey through life they leave footprints wherever they go- footprints of kindness and love, courage and compassion, humor and inspiration, joy and faith. Even when they are gone, we can still look back and clearly see the trail they left behind--a trail bright with hope that invites us to follow." Praying that you will be comforted with the precious memories of Jose and God's presence to care for you in your loss. With deepest sympathy, God Bless you. Rosemary and Ray Jimenez.

“ I'm still in disbelief that this has happened in our family. He was very loved by so many. There was a funny inside joke I had always heard as a kid and adult that he and my Tia were gonna adopt me before I was born, they always treated me as a daughter, and Beth always made me feel like a sister when I would visit as a kid. I'll never forget that! My last memory visiting my Tio and Tia was this past January eating tamales with them and my Dad at their house bringing up old memories and laughing. I was so glad my dad picked me up that day to visit not knowing what would become. I will forever cherish that day! I love you Tio! Rest in paradise ❤️

“ To the Briones family: my deepest condolences on your loss. To my friend: lovingly known here at HEB as "Mr. Jose" I still can't believe that you are gone and we will never have our talks again, sometimes bs talk and other times serious talks, I cherished those times and valued your input thanks for always listening to me jabber. I miss you "My Friend". Always in my thoughts

“ Tio, I still can't believe that I will never see you again. You were our go to for everything. I feel so deeply sad inside. You meant so much to everyone. The world is not going to be the same without you in it. You and your laughter...you can now share your laughter with the angels. I love you so much...I wish I could hug you one last time...until we meet again; farewell to an amazing man.
