“ My heartfelt condolences to you Cousins Didi and Tony JR. Your dad, my Uncle Tony was the second born child of Espirioña and Antonio Gonzales (one year and two months) after my Mom, Minerva “Minnie” Gonzales Lozano. Mom always said she loved dancing with her brother Uncle Tony at all the dances they went to growing up! She also all the ladies wanted to dance with him because he was so charming and handsome. I will always remember him for his loving, affectionate, kind and always so sweet ways. He never had an unkind word to say. I will always be grateful to him for visiting my Dad many times after my Mom passed. He would stop by with a great big warm smile and a big hug for him and me.

Uncle Tony, I know God welcomed you with a great big smile and hug in return! I love you and will miss you here in earth but feel at peace knowing you are up there with many other family members.
