HERNANDEZ

Jose Carlos Hernandez was born on April 20, 1928 to Ricardo and Carolina Hernandez. He passed away on March 23, 2023 at the age of 94. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Maria Refugio Hernandez; Three daughters: Eva (Sylvia) Madrigal Hernandez, Carmen (Leonard) Hernandez, and Carolina Beaven; two sons: Miguel and Carlos Hernandez; 10 grandchildren: Leonard Jimenez, Jr, Jabob Jimenez, Jacqueline Jimenez, Jennifer Jimenez, Vanessa Beaven, William Beaven, Michael Beaven, Ixavier Hernandez, Alexandria Hernandez, and Isiah Hernandez; and 3 great grandchildren. Our father, grandfather, uncle, godfather, friend, will be missed and remembered by many lives he touched. Even though he got on people's nerves and was grouchy at times, he was still someone whom people will remember. José Carlos, Dad, we are happy that you are home free and painless in the company of your mom, Brothers and Sisters. We will always love and miss you until we can meet again.

My Dad didn't graduate high school nor attended college but he found much pleasure in reading broadly. He worked many hours under the sun as a house builder and/or carpenter, he was always the boss man. He worked hard but party even harder!

He knew how to celebrate any occasion which will usually last the entire weekend and everyone was invited! Him and his compadres will get plaster and we would play pranks on them. But of course, at the end of such parties we all go to the park to play basketball!!! He smoked like a chimney and yet his lungs were clear, go figure!

I, (Carmen) personally loved his cooking, he would mix and cook what he would call fritanga and tacos de papa, of course everything super spicy hot, delicious!

During his last year's he loved playing cards with his granddaughters Jacqueline and Jennifer and even though he didn't speak too much English he would always argue with them, especially Jacqueline, about cheating and what not. We would always offer him candy and his eyes lit up like a kid in a candy shop! He loved sweets!!
