Such a nice service honoring and remembering Mr. Jose (Joe) R. Lopez, Jr.. Thank you Hector for sharing those precious moments you experienced with your father. It is so admirable and selfless to know how much you and Mark loved and cared for your father and continue to do so for your sweet and dear mother. I must admit that I have never heard of such love, dedication and sacrifice from a son (daughter) and spouse for his parents, NEVER! Sadly, In my past experiences, I have had to speak and explain to many elderly patients who had children but who never visited their parents in the hospitals, about surgeries that they may or may not awake from! Can you imagine their hurt and sense of abandonment?! They had already developed the mindset that they were old and a burden to their families! They gave up the will to live! Thankfully, that was not the case with Mr. Joe Lopez, Jr.! He lived the American Dream! He was loved and cared for til the very end! He served his country selflessly, married the love of his life, raised his four children and worked hard to take care of his family! What a LEGACY! He will be greatly missed! I will hold your memory close to my heart and continue to always pray for God to give his PEACE, LOVE and COMFORT to your darling wife, Carmen, your handsome son, Hector (whom I shall always love!) and his Angel and partner (whom I'm also starting to love!), Mark! My prayers to your extended family as well. It was so very nice to meet everyone during Your Celebration Of Life! Until we meet again.

“ Your memory will live on in our hearts forever. No farewell words were spoken to say goodbye, you were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Your fond memories will remain in our hearts forever. I enjoyed visiting with you and Tia Carmen, always a joker with a big smile. You are gone but never forgotten. Frank and I will miss you. Love you always.

“ So many memories I'm grateful for Grandpa! I know I didn't live close growing up, but I am thankful for all the times we did share together with the family. You always gave great advise when I needed help with projects around the house or was trying to keep a plant alive (sorry I did not inherit your green thumb! 🙄). The games, the laughs, the movie days with Rudy and the kids and the times of hanging out in your backyard listening to some good oldies music....ALL memories I will cherish forever. I love you and miss you already. May you rest in peace Grandpa Lopez 💜

“Grandpa. I know the years passed quickly and life didn't always bring us together as much as it should have. The memories I have will forever be in my heart. The sleepovers, pancakes the size of my plate, shit on the shingles for lunch😂 and your laugh so childlike. And all the silly Dad Jokes. All the times we hung out in your immaculate yard and garden. I love you and I'm glad I was able to say those words in recent days. I'll miss you soooo much but I know your heaven and all those memories are now restored to you.
