“ Rest In Peace to my Stepdad Jose Luis "Chavez" Rios... You have been in my life about 30 years... I told you many times how much we loved you and how thankful we were to have you in our lives...that you did a great job providing for our family and always there for us...that you were a wonderful husband, father and grandfather...I told you many times how much I considered you as my father even though I already have a dad...you gave us great advice and we learned alot from you. You said family was the most important thing, that you were so happy Laura and I got back together and had 2 more children. I am so glad you got to meet Olivia and Emma...We had so many fun memories together as a family. We all are going to miss you greatly. We promise to always remember you and keep you In our prayers. Thinking of you and all the times we shared...you weren't suppose to leave us for many more years, we know now that God needed you more than us...we know that you will make a great guardian Angel in Heaven as you were here on Earth... We are sure you are looking down on us from heaven with Grandpaw Mireles, and our "soldiers" Sid and Toby...May God Bless you and hold you in his arms... We Love you Jose...see you later Jose...gonna miss you so much. Thank you for everything.-Andrew
