

Jose Villarreal Jr.

November 22, 1945 - April 30, 2024

Jose "Joe" Villarreal Jr was born November 22, 1945, in San Antonio, Texas. He was raised by his loving parents, Marcos and Guadalupe Lopez. He passed away on April 30, 2024. Jose is preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by wife Belia Maria Villarreal, his children: daughter - Yvette R. Balderas, son - Daniel (Norma) Jimenez, his grandchildren, Nicole Balderas, Bryana (Greg) Slayden, and P.J. Balderas, his great grandchildren, Aubree, Brayden, and Baby Peanut Slayden, as well as numerous beloved brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, friends, and extended family from the Rocha Family.

Joe enjoyed watching wrestling (WWE/WWF), NFL and college football- specifically the Longhorns, NBA- specifically the Spurs. He also enjoyed puzzles, reading the newspaper, and keeping up with current events. He was known for having a cap of every team in the NFL, except the Cowboys, yet you would still catch him watching most of their games to disagree & taunt his son & family about game loss & record. Joe was a loving husband, caring father, grandfather and great- grandfather (Nono), as well as a feisty and strong character. He will be dearly missed.
