“ I only knew you for a short time, but I value the few long conversations we had. Even when you kept falling asleep in the middle of your story and I just looked at you wondering if I'm suppose to wake you up or leave. I will retell the stories you shared with me to your grandkids and one day to your great grandkids. Trust that I will take care of your daughter, your grandkids, and your landlord. Until we meet again and share a pack of lucky strikes and take some shots of tequila. Nos wachamos Suegro.
