“ I didn't know Josie and only talked to her once, when I phoned her while I was in San Antonio for work in September 2001. I was in the seminary with Steve, who was a great friend and made a lasting impression on me. Steve talked so highly and lovingly of his mother. I'm sure Steve got a lot of his passion for social justice and love for others from his mother. -Kevin Slator

“ I never met Josie, but in working with Heather and hearing all the wonderful, loving, funny stories Heather would tell me, I felt like I knew her. She seemed to be a woman full of love and happiness and we should all want to be like her. She will be missed dearly. Hugs, Nelda Padilla
