

Joseph Charles Pena

January 29, 1956 - August 19, 2022

Our beloved brother Joseph C. Pena "Joey" entered into rest in the early morning on August 19th, 2022. He was surrounded by his family and friends until his departure. He was rich in friends who stayed loyal to him for many years. He loved cars, driving and working on them till late at night. In his youth he raced at the track with his friend on weekends. He was a classic car enthusiast and he loved music. He enjoyed listening to his collection of what he called "oldies but goodies" He was a devoted "Spurs" and "Cowboys" fan, he would call us in the evening if a game was going to start "watch the game" he would say, we will miss him calling to remind us. His years of life were not easy, but he endured living in a wheelchair, it didn't stop his determination to live his life on his terms. He attended St. Margaret Mary's church faithfully until he became homebound.

He is preceded in death by his parents Joseph & Elia Pena, and his older brother Richard A. Pena. Joey will be deeply missed. He is survived by his sons Anthony R. Pena (wife Crystal), Michael Auer (wife Gabby) grandchildren Aaron and Naomi Pena, and Sibylla Auer. Sisters Anita L. Gibson (husband William), JoElaine Pena, Yolanda Pena Tellez (husband Victor). Nephews Julius, Matthew and Patrick Pena, Niece Dina Hanlon (husband Chaz), Great Niece Tara Lumpkin (husband Dre), Great Nephew Casey Hanlon (wife Rachel) and Great Great Nephew Tripp Hanlon.
