“ Our deepest condolences, Mimi, on the loss of dear Joe. We will always remember how both of you welcomed us into the neighborhood so many years ago and became fast friends. Some of my fondest memories are of when you and Joe watched our kitties while we were on vacation. They just loved Joe - even Gilligan and Michelangelo (Mikey) who never let us get near them, they jumped on Joe's lap for his love. He had a special way with our babies. His intelligence, humor and kindness will definitely be missed. May memories of all the loving years you spent together bring you peace at this most difficult time. Our love to you both.
