

Joseph "Yosky" William Horwath Vazquez

October 23, 1959 - September 29, 2025

Joseph "Yosky" William Horwath Vazquez was born on October 23, 1959, in San Antonio, Texas, to Joe Horwath and Evita Vazquez. The eldest of five siblings, Yosky filled every room he entered with light, laughter, and an unforgettable presence.

He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, and friend. His life was defined by love for his family and friends, for animals he cared for with such devotion, for the game of fútbol he played, coached, and cherished, and for the countless people he helped selflessly along the way.

Yosky was also a fearless warrior, never afraid to walk his own path and always living life on his own terms. His warmth, strength, and generosity of spirit touched everyone who knew him.

He is survived by his loving wife, Ana; his four children, Jose, Bruno, Alexa and Sofia; and his five cherished grandchildren, who will carry forward his legacy of courage, kindness, and joy; and his siblings, Dennis, Eddie, Bruno, Jaroslava.

Yosky will be deeply missed yet forever remembered with love by all whose lives he touched.

“ Joseph will be forever missed. I worked with him for 14 years and everyday was enjoyable in our own ways. He taught us so much and watched my children grow through out the years. He was my work family. Ana and family, thank you for sharing Joseph with my family. We love you all and our hearts ache too. Love you all.
