“ I was saddened to hear of Mi Madrina's passing. She was my Godmother for baptism and communion. She was a good and kind lady. Even though she had her own kids, she would take my sister and I swimming to pools around San Antonio, Medina Lake and even tricker treating on Halloween. I have such fond memories of her laughing and dancing with my parents. I was fortunate enough to see her one last time before covid and talked and laughed with her. She reminisced of all the great times we had in the barrio and with my father and mother. Rest in Peace Madrina.

Clara and Jimmy, thank you for taking care of Mi Madrina, your kindness will always be remembered. My condolences to Frank and Joann and all extended family members.
