“ Joshua was a brilliant and kind young man. I was honored to have been able to attend classes with him at the University of Texas at San Antonio after having attended the US Army Sergeants Major Academy with his father, Tyrone. I was crushed when I was informed about his passing. My heart and prayers are with Joshua, Tyrone and Jackie, and their Family.

Allen: I went to school with Josh. He was the most wonderful person. I can count on one hand the number of people I know that are as genuinely kind as him. Such a huge loss.

“ I don't want to type this because I only want to think of Josh in the present, but I feel I must share my thought. Josh was a warm smile waiting to happen. He lit up every room with his mere presence. He was joy in abundance. Since his passing joy is the only word I can seem to think of to describe him. Josh was love. He freely gave love and it return it was easy to poor it on him. I know it was established from the beginning that we would have Josh for only a short while. Though we all grieve his absence, God needed him back. I know Josh is looking down at us, probably sad because he's missing this grand celebration, but he's happy because he is with the ONE who loves him best. I am so thankful that I got to witness your growth. Joshua, fly high. You've got your angel wings now! I love you and I will forever miss you!

My thoughts and prayers are with the Wright family during your hour of bereavement. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Joshua is now resting in the arms of the Great I Am.
